[Partner Name] has partnered with CaringBridge, a nonprofit that supports the love and connection of more than 500,000 people every day.

CaringBridge provides personal websites where people can share updates during any type of health event. A CaringBridge website allows you to share news quickly and easily, while ensuring that your privacy is always protected.

Through a CaringBridge website, everyone can leave messages of support and encouragement. We also provide a Planner that helps loved ones coordinate care and organize daily tasks, such as bringing a meal, taking care of pets or driving to appointments.

CaringBridge believes that in times of need, the greatest source of hope and healing is the love of family and friends. “Using CaringBridge was definitely the best decision I possibly could have made at that point in our cancer journey. It felt incredible to have people all over the world checking in and sending us good thoughts, prayers, love and hugs,” says Joy Steinback, whose daughter Julia is in remission after three years of treatment for leukemia.

At CaringBridge, personal data is protected and never sold, and there is no outside advertising. Therefore we rely on the compassion and generosity of our donors and volunteers to make CaringBridge possible, and to keep millions of people connected every year.
